

Converse County Sheriff's Office

Felony Theft Arrest

On March 28, 2025, investigators from the Converse County Sheriff's Office arrested Steven M. Lewis, a 53-year-old resident of Douglas, on charges of felony theft. As part of the ongoing investigation, search warrants were executed at both his residence and his office located in downtown Douglas. At this time, there is no further information available, and there is no risk to public safety.